

COURSE IN BASIC CLUB TOURNAMENT DIRECTION

This course shows how to run the weekly bridge competition in your club. It's ideal for committee members, and for anyone who wants to know how bridge works,

Saturday 20th September 2014

Templeogue Bridge Centre, Templeogue Road, Dublin 6W

11 a.m. – 5.15 p.m.

This popular course is presented by Michael O'Malley and Bernard Higgins, who are Assistant National Tournament Directors.

You'll learn how to run a competition in your bridge club, how to score it afterwards, and how to deal with routine queries about the laws. Along the way, you'll discover a few myths about the laws of bridge, and get a better understanding of the game.

There are three sessions over a day –

- Session 1 The tournament director's job
 Simple movements - Mitchells and Howells
- Session 2 How scoring works
- Session 3 Laws and regulations you should know

The cost is €35 per person, to include materials and a light lunch.

To book a place contact Michael O'Malley 086 844 4429 mikeandfu@gmail.com or Bernard Higgins 087 988 0115 bernardhiggins@gmail.com

Numbers are limited, and advance booking is necessary.